MESURE X-Youth Services Initiative FY2026-2027

Request for Proposals (RFP)

RFP 26-07, City of Oceanside Youth Services

I. INTRODUCTION

Overview

The City of Oceanside Department of Housing and Neighborhood Services (HNS) (“the City”) is requesting proposals from individuals and/or organizations that can demonstrate qualifications and experience to provide services that support and engage at-risk youth (“the Program”) and meet one or more of the funding strategies for youth services. This Youth Services initiative seeks to address the needs of Oceanside youth living in Opportunity Neighborhoods and at-risk of gang involvement, youth violence by sponsoring effective prevention and intervention youth development programming. Proposals targeting Middle- and/or High-school aged youth are prioritized for funding.

This RFP covers the funding strategies outlined in the City of Oceanside Youth Services Funding Strategies FY2025-2035 summarized in the RFP.

Grants awarded through this RFP will be for a period of one-year starting on July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2027. The City projects approximately $800,000 in grant funding through the Measure X tax initiative to provide direct service and program activities to Oceanside youth as defined under each funding source.

CITY OF OCEANSIDE YOUTH SERVICES FUNDING STRATEGIES FY2025-2035

City of Oceanside Equity Framework for Youth Program Strategic Funding

Located sixty miles from the U.S.-Mexican border, between Los Angeles and Tijuana, Mexico, the City of Oceanside encompasses forty-two square miles and is home to Marine Corps Base at Camp Pendleton. With over 42,000 active-duty Marines and Sailors living on and off base, Oceanside has a rich history and a diverse, transitory population.

Nationwide, 15% of all homicides are gang-related. In January 2008, as a result of a highly publicized gang-involved police officer shooting, the Oceanside City Council established the Oceanside Community Safety Partnership (OCSP) Steering Committee to facilitate public and private organizations and individuals to address community safety concerns and gaps in services related to at-risk youth. Today, Steering Committee members represent Public Safety/Law Enforcement, Youth Organizations, Education, Neighborhood Residents, Faith-Based Organizations, Business, City/County/State government Leadership, and City Staff. Each member and organization or group they represent bring forth resources and expertise to share with the partnership. The OCSP Steering Committee meets monthly to discuss the trends and challenges facing Oceanside youth, as well as best-practices and strategies to enhance public safety, prevent gang involvement and substance use and decrease youth violence. The OCSP recognizes/recommends as a best practice positive youth development models to address core trends in violence and truancy. Under this initiative, OCSP will provide the oversight for grants management of all awardees as well as a sounding board to address any potential barriers to successful programming.

Many neighborhoods in Oceanside continue to struggle with challenges related to gang involvement, youth violence, drug experimentation/use/abuse, poverty, and other high-risk behaviors. The Housing and Neighborhood Services Department has been tasked with the promotion and support of gang prevention/intervention programs under Measure X-Youth Services by identifying gaps in youth services as well as enhancing program delivery to at-risk youth living in Opportunity Neighborhoods including: Libby Lake/Mesa Margarita; Eastside; Crown Heights; Backgate; and Landes/Tri-Cities.

Some of the challenges Oceanside youth experience are as follows:

- 15% of Oceanside youth in our Target Neighborhoods (Libby Lake/Mesa Margarita, Landes/Tri-Cities, Backgate, Eastside, and Crown Heights) received structured afterschool programming.
- Oceanside has a 30% higher juvenile crime rate than like cities.
- There is a 47% graduation rate in Target Neighborhoods
- 85% of families lack access to affordable afterschool programs

- OUSD has a 29% chronic absenteeism rate with students missing 10% or more instructional days
- There will be a 12% increase in the Oceanside youth population over the next 3 years (ages 11-16) in our Target Neighborhoods
- 9.5% of high school dropouts were economically disadvantaged
- Only 38.5% of the economically disadvantaged youth in the UC/CSU system met academic standards
- There is a 3.2% suspension rate at OUSD
- Last year, there were 600 violent offenses in OUSD schools; 200 of these offenses resulted in injury.

Positive youth development models address the needs of opportunity youth who might be vulnerable to violence by focusing on known risk factors and the behavioral development of juveniles for early intervention and prevention. Youth diversion and intervention programs help reduce youth crime and youth violence in the community by engaging at-risk youth in alternative programs that provide an outlet for positive expression, social and emotional skills, self-discipline, sports development and cultural identity. Sound prevention, intervention, and diversion programs can save taxpayers seven to ten dollars for every dollar invested. This is primarily due to reductions in the amount spent on incarceration. These programs can prevent the onset of adult criminal careers, and reduce the likelihood of youth perpetrating serious and violent offenses.

The City of Oceanside is committed to supporting programs that target youth and families who need support and intensive prevention and intervention services to divert at-risk populations away from juvenile delinquency and gang involvement. The City is also invested in supporting second chance efforts by supporting nonprofit, faith-based and/or grassroots groups that intervene with active gang members and/or youth involved with the criminal justice system to reduce incidents of violence in high crime neighborhoods.

Youth Services Funding Guidance

- 1) The City of Oceanside will focus youth funding to address the needs of disadvantaged youth and families living in opportunity neighborhoods including but not limited to: Mesa Margarita/Libby Lake; Backgate; Eastside; Crown Heights; and John Landes/Tri-City.
- 2) Funding will support culturally responsive approaches to service delivery and actively promote youth well-being, foster positive choices, and discourage gang involvement while creating opportunities for youth to be more involved within their communities.
- 3) The City of Oceanside recognizes the need for programs and funding aimed at youth who are facing multiple barriers that increase risk and contribute to negative outcomes. All funding approaches should support the specific needs of Oceanside youth such as:

- Transition-age youth who are lacking support from family or services
- Children and youth experiencing homelessness
- Chronically absent youth
- Youth at-risk for gang or drug involvement
- Youth living in identified opportunity neighborhoods
- Youth who are living in poverty

According to the National Gang Center-Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) Model Programs Guide (2021), risk factors for youth gang involvement may include the following:

The OJJDP’s Comprehensive Gang Model includes the following best-practice strategies to prevent youth gang involvement:

- Community Mobilization: Requires collaboration and the involvement of local citizens—including former gang youth, community groups, and agencies—and the coordination of programs and staff functions within and across agencies.
- Opportunities Provision: Refers to the development of a variety of specific education, training, and employment programs targeting gang-involved youth.

- Social Intervention: All youth-serving agencies, schools, grassroots groups, faith-based organizations, law enforcement, and other juvenile/criminal justice organizations should be conducting outreach to gang-involved youth and their families and linking them with the larger community and needed services.
- Suppression: Involves formal and informal social control procedures, including close supervision and monitoring of gang-involved youth by agencies of the juvenile/criminal justice system and also by community-based agencies, schools, and grassroots groups.
- Organizational Change and Development: Assess, develop, and implement policies and procedures that result in the most effective use of available and potential resources in the community to better address the gang problem.

Youth program strategic funding will address three foundational goals:

- 1) Healthy Development of Oceanside Youth
 - 2) Safety, Health, and Well-Being of Oceanside Youth
 - 3) Violence Prevention for Oceanside Youth

Each goal identifies 1-3 strategies, listed below. The City will use these strategies to address that goal and identify programs to fund. Applicants should be familiar with goals and strategies for funding.

Goal #1: Healthy Development of Oceanside Children and Youth

Under Goal #1, the City of Oceanside will focus funding for direct-service programming designed to promote the healthy development and well-being of our youth through two strategies: Social and Emotional Skills Programming for Youth and Their Parents and Comprehensive Year-Round Afterschool Programs.

These strategies support engagement from youth and their families who are currently underserved by available programming and who would benefit from community-based programming that is tailored to their specific needs.

Strategy 1: Social and Emotional Skills Programming for Youth and Their Parents

The City of Oceanside supports programs focused on the social and emotional skills development of youth in elementary, middle, and high school by funding program models that strengthen our children and youth's ability to: set and achieve goals; show empathy to others; establish and maintain positive relationships; improve classroom behavior, manage stress, and build resilience.

Youth and parent engagement is an important strategy toward community success. The City of Oceanside supports programs that encourage parental involvement both in their children's lives and in the larger community. Workshops and classes that increase knowledge about topics such as: Navigating School Portals; Human Trafficking; Opioid Prevention; Gang Involvement; Mental Health; Community Resources; Positive Parenting; and Dating Violence are some examples of parent engagement opportunities.

Under this strategy, it is important to include our Community Resource Centers when planning engagement events as this setting gives youth and parents an opportunity to connect with other families for social networking, learning, community service, civic engagement, and leadership. City Staff working as Community Resource Specialists are often embedded in the community and are a resource providing culturally and linguistically relevant services and approaches to address the unique needs of the families they serve.

Priority Population and Geography: Oceanside youth ages K-12 and their parents/caregivers with special emphasis on middle- and/or high-school age youth living within an identified opportunity neighborhood.

Supported Programming: Screening and referral services, skills groups, student/parent workshops, trusted-adult mentoring programs, activities to build foundational social/emotional connections, basic needs distribution, family activities, economic support/legal resources, community engagement.

Intended Outcomes and Impact: Improved access to culturally sensitive, trauma-informed mental health services, improved behavior in the classroom, decrease in youth violence and drug use/abuse, more parents/caregiver engagement, leadership and advocacy for youth and parents.

Strategy 2: Comprehensive, Year-Round Afterschool Programs

Year-round, afterschool programming that has the ability to combine quality academic assistance as well as engaging enrichment activities at no cost is a way to support low-income families and reduce juvenile crime. By providing safe, effective afterschool programs in opportunity neighborhoods, the City can connect hundreds of children and youth with caring adults who use creativity and innovation, as well as trauma-informed approaches, to engage young participants. Successful afterschool programs use a mixture of academic tutoring, mentorship, hands-on projects, service learning, guest speakers, and off-site activities to create a robust and stimulating learning environment.

This strategy supports academic and enrichment youth programming during the entire year and on weekends. The City of Oceanside will partner with community-based organizations at community locations to deliver high-quality instruction and activities that may not be otherwise accessible to low-income families. These programs will prevent students from falling behind their classmates during periods when schools are not in session. Year-round enrichment programs promote social and emotional learning, community engagement, health, and development.

Priority Population and Geography: Oceanside children and youth in grades K-12 with special emphasis on middle- and high-school age youth living within identified opportunity neighborhoods.

Supported Programming: Academic support, structured afterschool programming, improved social/emotional skills programming, visual and performing arts, hands-on projects, service-learning projects, culturally affirming activities, health, fitness, and sports programs

Intended Outcomes and Impact: Improved school attendance and academic achievement, children and youth are safe during afterschool hours, decrease in youth violence/crime and drug exposure, increased community connectedness, increased leadership skills, improved activity levels and overall health, expanded access to literacy, arts, technology, and other enrichment.

Goal #2: Health, Safety, and Well-Being for Oceanside Youth

Under Goal #2, The City will be investing in programs that are specifically designed to engage middle-school youth and create employment opportunities for young adults in high-school. Youth who feel connected to their community and who can envision a bright future are destined for success.

Strategy 3, Middle School-Age Youth Engagement, Wellness, and Transition, will support programming that will assist middle-school youth as they transition from elementary school to middle school.

Strategy 4, High School and Post-Secondary Workforce Development and Student Success, will focus on programs that eliminate barriers to employment and teach youth the skills they will need to be successful adults.

Strategy 5, Cultural Enrichment Programs for Youth, will create opportunities for youth to connect with their culture as well as the larger community of Oceanside.

Strategy 3: Middle School-Age Youth Engagement, Wellness and Transition

While Oceanside’s overall crime rate has continued to decline, juvenile crime is at an all-time high. By focusing funding on the middle school population in neighborhoods that are affected by violence, poverty and stress, we can address trauma and mental health crises among young students before they get to high school. Enhanced investment in middle school-age youth engagement will provide youth with opportunities to learn how to set and achieve goals, healthy problem solving, responsible decision making, and enhance their academic performance. Middle school-age programs can provide mentorship, counseling, drug/gang/violence prevention, and wrap-around services for students and their families.

Priority Population and Geography: Oceanside middle school students in grades 6-8 living with opportunity neighborhoods.

Supported Programming: Culturally affirming, developmentally appropriate programming, support for academic success, mental/behavioral health referrals, mentoring programs, sports and recreation programs, skills groups that address grief and loss, substance use, mental health, and restorative justice

Intended Outcomes and Impact: Improved school attendance, decrease in youth crime/violence, reduced school suspension rates, improved classroom behavior

Strategy 4: High School and Post-Secondary Workforce Development and Student Success

This strategy will support programs that work with high-school students to assist with the transition to the workforce, post-secondary opportunities or college. Workforce development and internship programs are especially encouraged, as are programs designed to increase the high-school graduation rates in Oceanside. This strategy promotes sustainable opportunities for employment for youth. Programs will connect youth to local businesses and provide support as youth gain employment skills and experience. Programs will address barriers to employment including: identification/paperwork, resumes, transportation, immediate financial needs, housing, basic needs, life skills, financial literacy, and mental health. Programs will provide students with soft skills and job etiquette to pursue future employment opportunities.

Priority Population and Geography: High school students and Transitional-Age Youth (TAY) ages 13-21, living in Oceanside with priority given to those youth living within identified opportunity neighborhoods.

Supported Programming: Peer leadership, life coaching, mentoring, community building, academic and social support, college and postsecondary preparation, postsecondary support, comprehensive and supported work experience (apprenticeships, subsidized employment, internships, and direct job placement programs, pre-employment training programs, dual enrollment programs, wrap-around services, financial literacy programs

Intended Outcomes and Impact: Increase school attendance, improved academic achievement, goal setting, improved connection to peers and caring adults, improved college/postsecondary readiness, decrease in youth violence, increased employment experience

Strategy 5: Cultural Enrichment Programs for Youth

This strategy will support programs that utilize a strengths-based approach when working with youth. Programs that promote empowerment, self-efficacy, and leadership are needed to teach youth through arts, recreation, and cultural enrichment, civic engagement, and community organizing and advocacy.

Priority Population and Geography: Oceanside middle and high school students in grades 6-12 living within an identified opportunity neighborhood.

Supported Programming: Visual and performing arts programs, sports and recreation programs, cultural arts and enrichment programs, safe spaces for youth, peer mentoring, civic engagement for youth, positive connections with peers and caring adults

Intended Outcomes and Impact: Increased youth engagement, and participation, increase connection to community, expanded access to literacy, arts, technology, and other enrichment, increase youth health and fitness, increased youth self-efficacy, decreased youth violence/crime.

Goal #3: Youth Development and Violence Prevention

The City of Oceanside will support direct service youth programs in an effort to combat the rise in youth crime as victims or perpetrators and steer young people away from using violence as a way of problem solving.

Strategy 6, Violence/Gang Prevention, will rely on comprehensive, Evidence-Based programming and should include education for parents and caregivers.

Strategy 6: Violence/Gang Prevention

This strategy aims to prevent violence and gang involvement among youth in Oceanside using Restorative Justice programs, mentorship and community collaboration to address mental health needs, parent education, and conflict resolution. Programs should promote respect and empathy and teach youth to take responsibility for their behavior and repair the harm caused by their actions to victims and the larger community.

Priority Population and Geography: Oceanside youth ages 12-18, parents/caregivers, community residents living within an identified opportunity neighborhood.

Supported Programming: Youth/parent outreach in target neighborhoods, Restorative Justice programs, Trauma-informed programs, mentorship, Social/Emotional Learning programs, conflict resolution, parent/caregiver workshops/education

Intended Outcomes and Impact: Decrease in youth violence/crime, decrease in gang involvement and recruitment, increase in youth leadership, increase in community activism, increase in mental health referrals, increase in community collaboration, increase in community connectedness

II. FUNDING, ELIGIBILITY AND SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Funding Availability

Funding Source	Estimated Funds FY2026-27
*Measure X-Youth Services	$800,000
Total	$800,000

MEASURE X-YOUTH SERVICES

The Measure X-Youth Services Initiative was designed to address service gaps in youth programming, especially for our at-risk and vulnerable youth, to assist the City in achieving its goal to enhance public safety and prevent gang involvement and youth violence. Positive Youth Development (PYD) models address the needs of youth who might be at risk of gang involvement, youth violence, drug experimentation/drug use, and other high-risk behaviors by focusing on known risk factors and the behavioral development of juveniles for early intervention and prevention.

Core Components and Principles of PYD Models

- The 5Cs: Positive outcomes are often measured by competence, confidence, connection, character, and caring (or compassion). Some models include "contribution" as a 6th C.
- Strengths-Based Approach: Rather than fixing deficits, PYD focuses on building on the existing talents, skills, and assets of all youth.
- Supportive Environment & Relationships: Programs must offer physical and psychological safety, alongside meaningful, supportive relationships with adults and peers.
- Active Youth Engagement: Youth are treated as active partners in their own development, as well as in the design, implementation, and evaluation of programs.

- Integration of Settings: Effective PYD leverages resources across families, schools, and communities to create consistent support.
- Key Developmental Features: Programs should provide clear, consistent, and high expectations for behavior, as well as opportunities for skill-building and leadership.
- Inclusivity and Cultural Relevance: Strategies must be responsive to the specific, diverse backgrounds, cultures, and needs of individual young people.

Successful PYD Programs strive to include and promote the following components while working with at-risk youth:

- Safety: Both physical and emotional security.
- Belonging: A sense of community.
- Structure: Clear rules and boundaries.
- Self-worth: Feeling that they matter.
- Skill-building: Opportunities to learn.
- Independence: Opportunities to make decisions

Youth diversion and intervention programs help reduce youth crime and youth violence in the community by engaging at-risk youth in alternative programs that provide an outlet for positive expression, social and emotional skills, self-discipline, sports development and cultural identity. Sound intervention, diversion, and prevention youth programs can save taxpayers seven to ten dollars for every dollar invested. This is primarily due to reductions in the amount spent on juvenile incarceration and the prevention of the onset of adult criminal careers and reduction of youth perpetrating serious and violent offenses.

Funding Term and Duration

Grants awarded through this RFP will be for an initial one-year period, July 1, 2026 to June 30, 2027.

Eligibility

Prospective applicants may be a public or private nonprofit organization, individual, faith-based organization, school, or a for-profit entity and have a minimum of three years of experience in administering comprehensive, ongoing programs for at-risk youth. At-risk youth is defined as youth who are less likely to successfully transition to adulthood because of a variety of risk factors including, but not limited to: poverty, violence, drug use/exposure, mental health, homelessness, or poor academic performance.

Proposed services should be provided through collaborations with the City, nonprofit organizations (NPOs), Community-Based organizations (CBOs) and grassroots or faith-based organizations (FBOs). In an effort to expand services in five pre-identified neighborhoods and communities (Mesa Margarita/Libby Lake, Backgate, Eastside, Crown Heights, and John Landes/Tri-City), grantees should strive to work together and share resources across borders and neighborhoods. Monthly attendance at OCSP Steering Committee meetings is mandatory for all grant recipients.

All recipients will be required to register as City Vendor and complete the *City vendor packet and submit all required supporting documentation listed in the application prior to award of contracts, including Certificates of Insurance for city approved limits. City Vendor packet can be found at the following link: <https://www.ci.oceanside.ca.us/government/financial-services/purchasing-vendor-registration>

Note: Existing City Vendors need to provide proof of current insurance and signatory authorization. Please see examples as attachments to this proposal.

Funds must be used primarily for direct service as presented in RFP. Administrative oversight and staffing are considered an indirect expense and may be included up to 5% Indirect. No more than 5% may be allocated for indirect costs, calculated as a percentage of the total grant request.

Matching Fund Requirement

Matching Funds refer to all program funding over the City's award that are necessary to provide the services at the proposed levels. All grantees will be required to provide a 25% match to any City funding. Proposals must demonstrate, if awarded, that the proposer has the ability to document or raise match funding. Match funding may include in-kind donations, volunteer hours, and monetary donations, payments or grant funding.

All grantees are required to submit quarterly program reports, quarterly financial reports, and an annual program report and annual financial report, due on the 15th of October, January, April, and July. Grantees must track scope of work activities, demographics, budget, program activities, enrollment, attendance, and invoices.

At any time during or before a grant agreement is issued, the City staff may conduct site visits, and/or interviews to verify Applicant's services.

BUDGET

The program budget is an important component of your proposal that should be clearly linked to support the proposed program, with reasonable and justifiable expenses for staffing and program costs. The budget proposed should be an appropriate and accurate projection of the program expenses for one program year, FY2026-27 (July 1, 2026 through June 30, 2027).

This section will allow your organization to show the cost effectiveness of your program and demonstrate how you will leverage other funds for the programs you are proposing. Applicants will provide a narrative justification for each line item in the program budget and will provide information on how funds requested are reasonable to support the level of services proposed.

If your organization was a previous recipient of City funding, please include total program expenses from the recent calendar year and describe any changes you want to incorporate the reasons for the change.

Staff Experience and Qualifications

Proposals should include information on the key staff who will be delivering direct services and their qualifications. Proposals may include resumes and/or job descriptions that illustrate the organization's ability to attract and retain qualified staff for the program.
